MEMBERSHIP CLASSIFICATION

BUILDER MEMBER

Builder Member shall be any person who is or has been in, employed by, or owns a firm or corporation which is or has been in the construction, alteration, rental, or improvement of housing and /or construction of any type, or in land improvement, within the territorial jurisdiction of this Institute. When a person is accepted as a Builder Member, if the employee who is designated by that firm or corporation, as its representative for its dealings with the institute leaves the firm's employ, the firm or corporation may designate another representative. If the Builder Member is an owner, the membership belongs to the person and they may change the company name.

ASSOCIATE MEMBER

Associate Member shall be any person who is or has been in or employed by a firm or corporation engaged in any trade, industry, business or profession within the territorial jurisdiction of this Institute, allied or related to construction of any type, and not engaged in construction, alteration, or improvement, except if engaged in construction, alteration, or improvement, primarily as a subcontractor or supplier.

CODE OF ETHICS OF LONG ISLAND BUILDERS INSTITUTE

Members shall constantly seek to provide better values, so that an ever-greater share of people may enjoy the benefit of home ownership.

Members shall strive to develop the efficiency of the building industry.

Members shall act at all times to contribute their knowledge in building to the best interests of those they serve.

Members shall not obtain any business by means of fraudulent statements or by use of implications unwarranted by use of implications unwarranted by fact or reasonable probability.

Members shall comply both in spirit and letter with rules and regulations prescribed by law and government agencies for the health, safety and progress of the community.

Members shall be alert to examine proposed or enacted national, state and local legislation detrimental to social, economic, and political progress.

Members shall not perform, or cause to be performed, any act which would tend to reflect on, or bring into disrepute, any part of the building.

Procedures For Application And Approval Of New Members

Process starts with receipt of completed and signed application and dues check.

Name is posted to membership for comments.

Sponsor sends letter of recommendation to Board.

References for credit, character and trade are contacted by LIBI staff.

All information gathered and presented from the above sources will be collected and reviewed by the Membership Committee. When they are satisfied that the information is complete, they will forward same to the Board with its recommendation.

Board of Directors reviews comments from members, and information received from references and other contacts. The full Board then votes on whether to accept the applicant as a member. Decision of Board is transmitted to applicant.

NOTE: Tendering of dues check by applicant or depositing of check by LIBI does not constitute acceptance of applicant for membership. If membership is denied, dues will be promptly refunded.
